ILLUSTRATED BICYCLE

A detailed black and white illustration of a man riding a bicycle down a dirt road. The man is wearing a cap, a vest over a shirt, and trousers. He has his hands on his hips. To the left, there is a small house with a thatched roof and a chimney, with several people standing nearby. To the right, there is a tall wooden post with a crossbar. The background shows a landscape with trees and a fence. The overall style is that of a 19th-century woodcut or engraving.

THEREFORE THIS

P R E F A C E .

This volume was written by the author for the purpose of having it printed; the printer printed it for the publisher to sell; and the publisher sells it as often as he can find a purchaser credulous enough to believe it is worth the price.

"The attempt, and not the deed, confounds us."

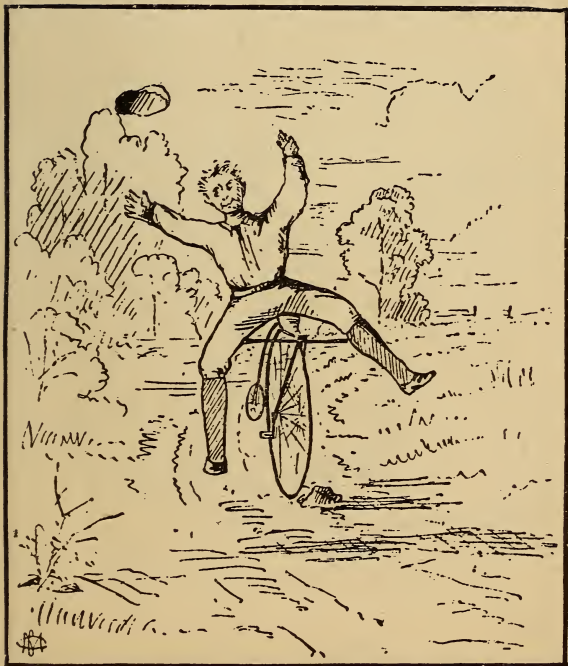

A The Attempt
I first had to make.

"A rolling stone gathers no moss."

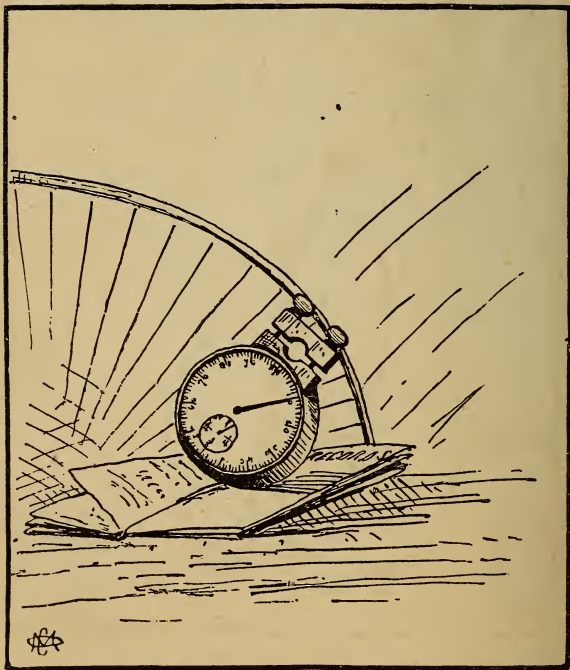

B For Ball-bearings,
That needed a brake.

"He that is down needs fear no fall."

C For the Cropper
I took the first day.

"True as the needle to the pole,
Or as the dial to the sun."

D Is the Distance
I made on the way.

"Oh, for a forty-parson power!"

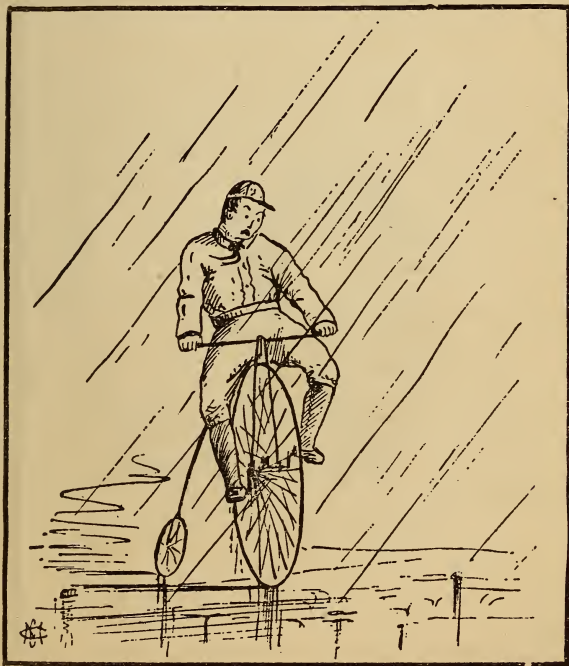

E For Exertion ;
But still I won't stop.

"I care not for my spirits if my legs were not weary."

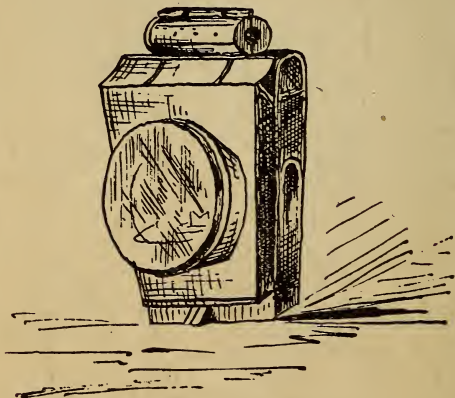

F For the Feeling
I had at the top.

"It never rains but it pours."

G Is the Ground,
That was slippery and wet.

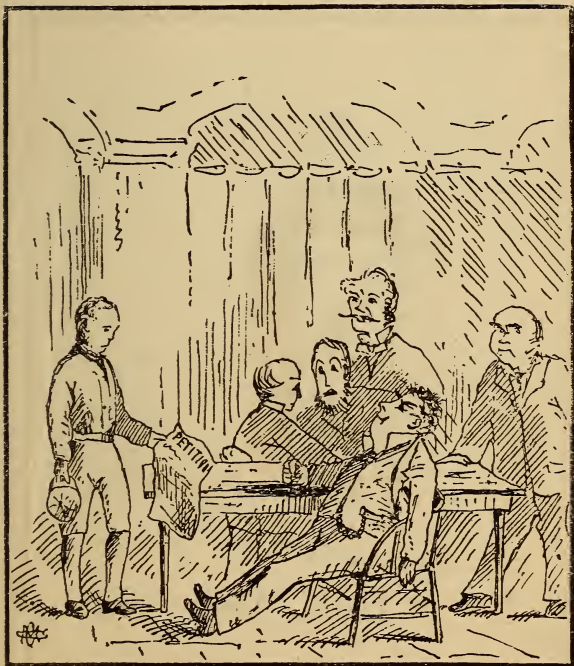

"Twinkle, twinkle, little star."

HC

H A Hub-lamp,
The best that's made yet.

"Righteous indignation is not wrath."

I Indignation of Committee on Parks.

"He's a darling, he's a daisy."

J For our John,
The masher of hearts.

"The fashion wears out more apparel than the man."

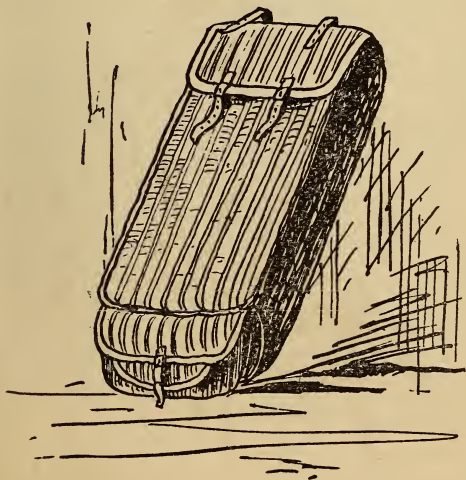

K For Knee-breeches,
The best, without doubt.

"My breeches, O, my breeches!"

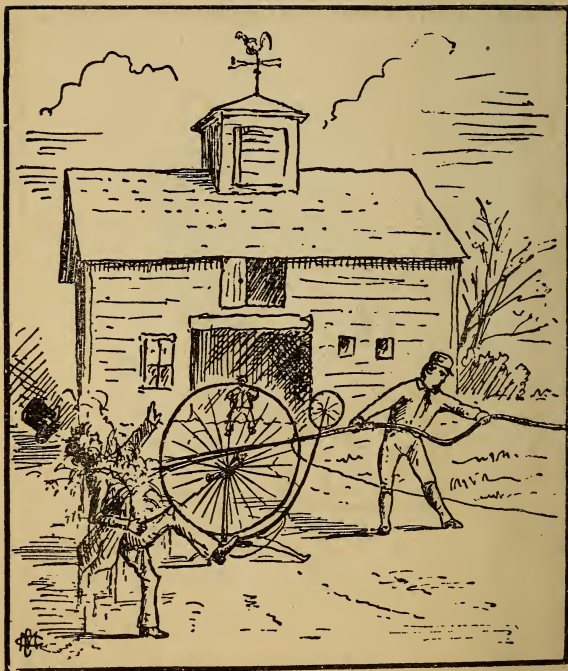

L For the Long-ride,
That wore us both out.

"Multum in parvo."

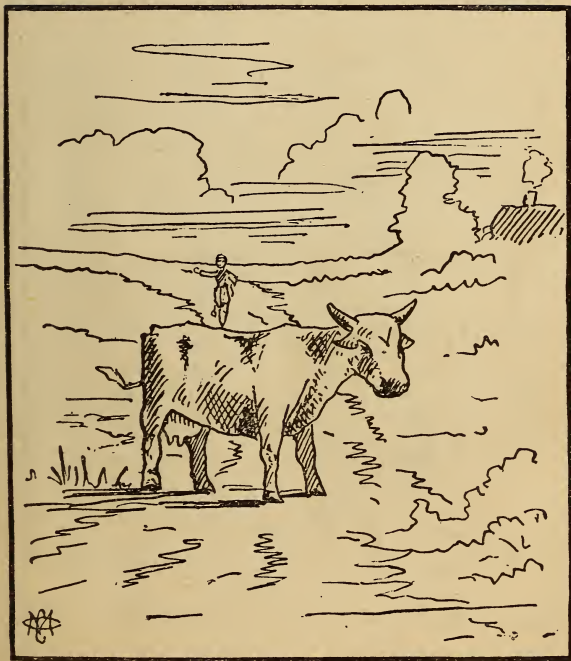

M For the Multum
To carry your clothes.

"Man wants but little here below,
Nor wants that little long."

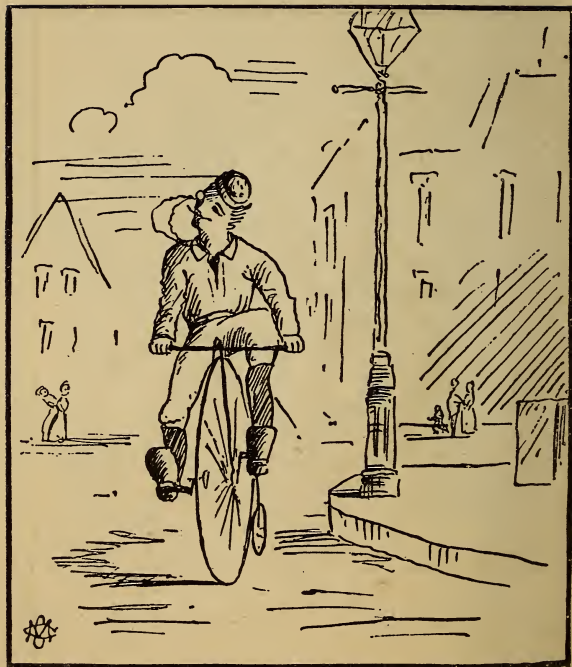

N Is for Nickel
You can wash with a hose.

"Obstructions never come singly."

O For Obstruction
I found in the street.

"What a monstrous tail our cat has got!"

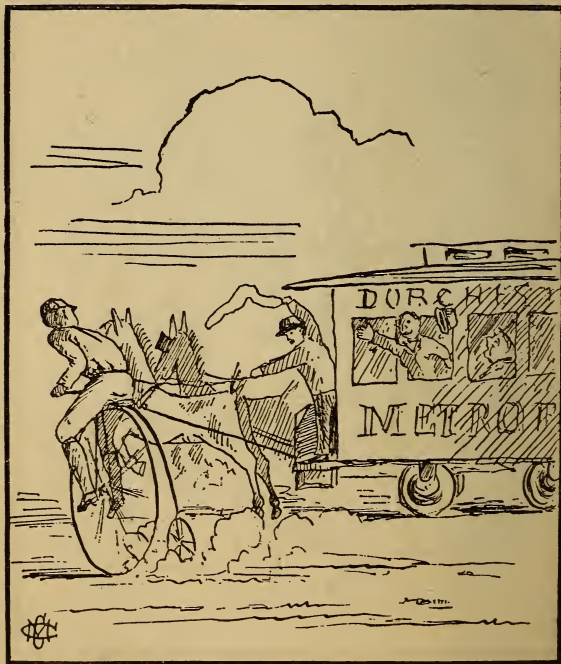

P For the Pedals,
Too small for my feet.

"A short question may need a long answer."

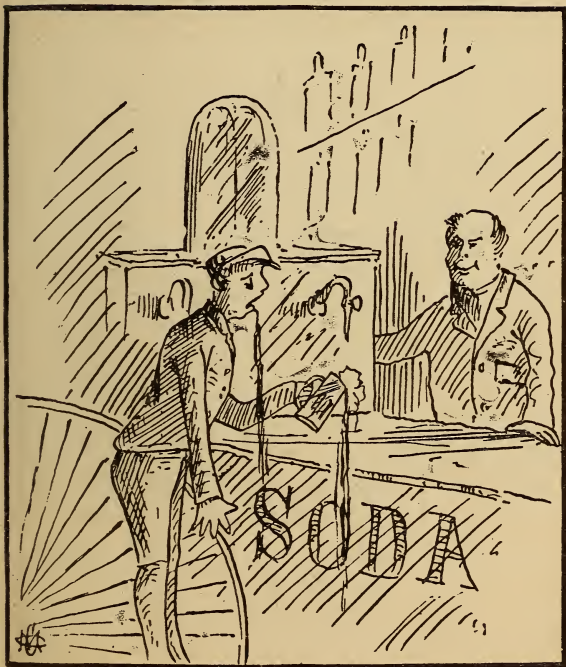

Q Is the Question,—
To Boston, how far?

"Aldeborontiphoscophornio!
Where left thou Chrononhotonthologos?"

R Is the Race
I had with a car.

"Give me an ounce of civet, good apothecary, to sweeten my imagination."

S For some Soda
I got at an inn.

"That it should come to this!"

V Is a Very
Rough, cobbly street.

"Except wind stands as never it stood,
It is an ill wind turns none to good."

W The Wind
That stops a strong treader.

“Wonderful, and yet again, most wonderful!”

X The Xtraordinary,
You can't take a header.

"Take the boy to you; he troubles me so, 'tis past enduring."

Y For the Youngster,
Who cries, Ring your bell.

"The end crowns all."

Z Is the Zigzag
I made 'fore I fell.
